

AIRPLANE Travel

CAR Travel

In 2019, 219,963 airplanes were registered in the United States. The airline industry is a huge contributor to the United States Economy.

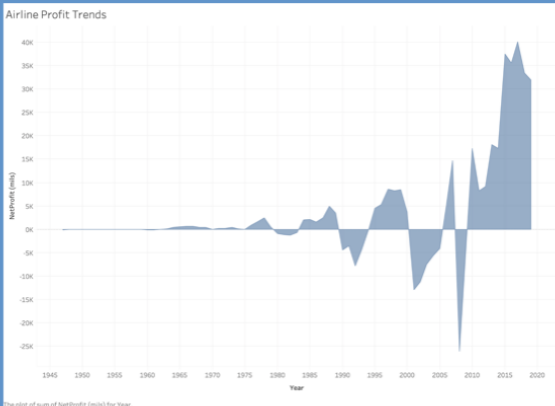

In 2019, 276,491,170 cars were registered in the United States alone, making it one of the most popular ways to travel.

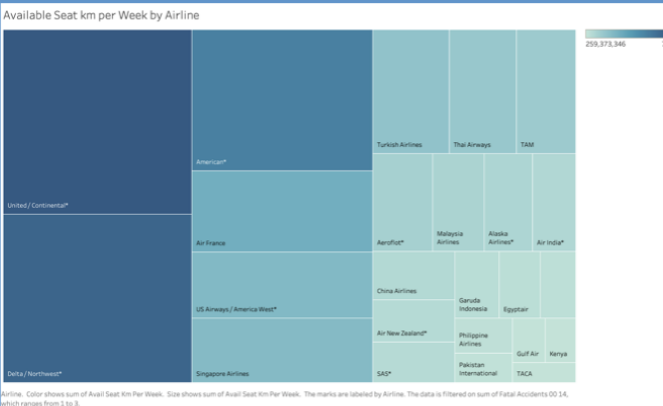

In the time from 1992-2020 Airline Fatalities have been steadily declining.

In the time from 1992-2020 Automobile Fatalities have remained relatively flat.

Since 2015 airlines have made a huge increase in profitability. This makes them an important contributor to the economy.

The largest airlines are helping people travel up to 7 billion kilometers per week.

Airline Travel continues to get safer year after year, yet traveling by car is viewed as less dangerous. Have no fear, traveling by airplane is safe and efficient.